

23rd EUROPEAN CONGRESS OF PSYCHIATRY

Vienna, Austria 28-31 March 2015

EXCELLENCE IN PSYCHIATRY ACROSS EUROPE:
PRACTICE, EDUCATION, RESEARCH

Give them the break they deserve: The benefits of allowing trainees to attend EPA 2015

The 23rd Congress of European Psychiatry is the largest gathering of psychiatric professionals in Europe. EPA 2015 is a prime opportunity for your young psychiatrist to enhance their skill set by participating in this experience exploring the top psychiatric practice, education and research.

By allowing your trainees to benefit from the EPA's Early Career Psychiatrist Programme at EPA 2015, it is your clinical practice that will ultimately be enhanced. There are several reasons to give your trainee the time to attend EPA 2015, 28-31 March 2015, including:

- Build the Perfect Trainee:
EPA 2015 enables you to tailor the Congress to your practice's specific needs by offering a diverse range of sessions, experiences, and collaboration opportunities for your trainee.
- Charge it to EPA:
EPA offers a scholarship programme for Early Career Psychiatrists that provides financial assistance for travel, hotel accommodation, Congress registration, 1 CME Course, and a year's free EPA membership.
- Gain exposure:
EPA 2015 can be your trainee's first abstract submission.
- Mix & Mingle in Vienna:
Your trainee will meet and exchange ideas with psychiatry's leading figures as well as the young visionaries of its future.
- CME Credits:
At EPA 2015, your trainee will be able to achieve valuable CPD.
- Top Performance:
Your trainee will be empowered by the experience of sharing their work on a world platform and to their peers. There is simply no substitute for the live audience of experts that EPA 2015 provides.

Trainee In, Professional Out

EPA's scientific programme offers a tangible return on investment for your training budget.

Early Career Psychiatrists also benefit from discounted registration fees.
